EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

Conforming and other amendments

These amendments to the general provisions ensure that the full range of compliance, enforcement, and other general authorities available to FDA for other products are available for tobacco products.

Prevents FDA from restricting the sale of tobacco products in face-to-face transactions to certain categories of retail outlets. Allows FDA to issue, after an administrative hearing before an Administrative Law Judge, a no tobacco sale order prohibiting the sale of tobacco products at a particular retail outlet based on repeated violations by that outlet.

Prior to using its authority to issue a no tobacco sale order, FDA must promulgate through notice-and-comment rule-making regulations that include a definition of the term "repeated violations," provisions for notice to the retailer of each violation, and a provision that good faith reliance on false identification does not constitute a violation of any FDA minimum age requirement for the sale of tobacco products.

Amends the Federal Cigarette Labeling and Advertising Act and the Comprehensive Smokeless Tobacco Health Education Act, to give the FDA the responsibility for ensuring that the various warning labels currently used on tobacco products continue to be used as to protect public health, within certain pack and advertisement size limits. FDA has the authority to revise the warnings.

In less than 2 years after enactment, the FDA shall promulgate rules requiring testing, reporting, and disclosure of tobacco product smoke constituents and ingredients, such as tar, nicotine, and carbon monoxide, that the FDA determines should be disclosed to the public in order to protect the public health.

"AMTRAK GOOD NEIGHBOR ACT OF 2001"

HON, ROB SIMMONS

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 14, 2001

Mr. SIMMONS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce the "Amtrak Good Neighbor Act of 2001."

The purpose of this bill is to build a better relationship between Amtrak and the local municipalities along the Northeast Rail Corridor.

As recently as last week, some concerned citizens in the great city of New London, Connecticut gave a much needed paint job to a railroad bridge owned by Amtrak, covering up years of graffiti. I called this a great act, reflecting the pride that New London residents have for their city. Amtrak called this trespassing and conducted a criminal investigation

There needs to be a better relationship between Amtrak and local municipalities. This is why I have introduced the Amtrak Good Neighbor Act of 2001. This bill directs Amtrak to work with local municipalities, whose citizens would like to provide improvements to Amtrak-owned property.

I urge my colleagues to support this important bill.

TRIBUTE TO MR. ROY ROGERS

HON. E. CLAY SHAW, JR.

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 14, 2001

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Roy Rogers for his tremendous contributions to the development of South Florida and the protection of its environmental resources. A graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy in 1960, Roy Rogers served his country proudly as a navigational engineer for a nuclear submarine. Following his service, Roy Rogers began his career as a developer. He developed golf courses with legendary architect Robert Trent Jones and assisted in the planning and development of multiple communities in South Florida.

In 1985, he started to oversee Arvida's planning and development of Weston, a community in western Broward County near the Florida Everglades. It was in this development project where Roy Rogers manifested his talents not only as a developer, but also as a conservationist. Although to many these talents seem polar opposites, Roy Rogers excelled in carefully blending his skill as a developer and his care for the environment. Conservationists and developers alike, commend Roy Rogers for his masterful development of western Broward County.

After 15 years of carefully watching over the creation of Weston, Roy Rogers recently retired from his position as senior vice president of Arvida/JMB. An active member in various civic and governmental organizations, Roy Rogers will continue to benefit the people of South Florida through his many talents. It is with great honor that I commend a good friend and skillful developer for enhancing the beauty of South Florida through his many projects.

EXPRESSING SORROW OF THE HOUSE AT THE DEATH OF THE HONORABLE JOHN JOSEPH MOAKLEY, A REPRESENTATIVE FROM THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

SPEECH OF

HON. MICHAEL G. OXLEY

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Wednesday, June 6, 2001

Mr. OXLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to join the colleagues who have paid their appreciation to a genial giant of the House of Representatives, Congressman JOE MOAKLEY.

Last night, the Massachusetts delegation led a tribute to JOE MOAKLEY in Statutory Hall. How fitting for JOE to be honored in that hall of legends.

It's hard in an era of political cynicism to find public officials who would be described as "beloved." But JOE MOAKLEY certainly was one, as evidenced by the heartfelt tributes that have come from those he worked with here in Washington and the people he represented back in Boston.

JOE MOAKLEY was principled, fair, and famously friendly. He was passionate without being unpleasant. JOE loved the institution of Congress and, in turn, became one of the select legislators who make Congress work for the American people. But despite his long years of service in the Nation's Capital and his ascension to the highest levels of power in the House, JOE MOAKLEY remained a man of Massachusetts and a person of great humor and humility. His unmistakable and delightful Boston accent told you immediately who JOE MOAKLEY was, where he came from, and who he represented.

During his distinguished career, JOE MOAK-LEY stood for integrity and decency. In doggedly carrying on with his congressional duties during this illness, he achieved nobility as well. We all mourn the loss of an expert legislator and friend. But we can honor the legacy of JOE MOAKLEY by conducting our business with his sense of honor and decency. It's a way that we can give back, for all that JOE MOAK-LEY gave to the House of Representatives, his constituents, and his country.
